

ALBERTA FIRES – One Month On

Help and Hope from the Red Cross

TOTAL FUNDS DONATED TO DATE

$125 Million

RED CROSS ASSISTANCE TO DATE

$50 Million in emergency financial assistance distributed to meet immediate urgent needs

$15 Million to support transportation to bring evacuees home

$25 Million to provide financial assistance after people return home

$25 Million supporting the provision of cash cards, shelter support services, registration, family reunification, and outreach to meet individuals' and families' unique needs across the country

This means, $115 Million of $125 Million has already been spent or committed to assist the people of Fort McMurray and surrounding areas.

NEW COMMUNITY INITIATIVES AHEAD

$50 Million to support community organizations with recovery activities

TOTAL FUNDS for Assistance Provided and Community Initiatives Ahead

$165 Million has been spent or committed to date

FACTS AT A GLANCE

More than 40,949 calls answered by Red Cross call centres

More than 18,810 cash cards or vouchers distributed

More than 3,050 blankets and 2,850 hygiene kits distributed, providing a sense of comfort and care

Over 1,600 Red Cross personnel contributing more than 50,800 hours to the response

Thanks to the overwhelming support of Canadians from coast-to-coast, the Red Cross will continue to have a lasting impact on people, families and communities as they rebuild and recover.